Re: Communication from Attorney Laurie Eggert, Eggert & Cermele, S.C. for legal fees for Police Officers Willie Huerta and Richard Villanueva
C.I. File No. 02-S-263; EC No. 1783

Dear Council Members:

Returned herewith is a document filed by Attorney Laurie A. Eggert for attorney's fees for representing Police Officers Willie Huerta and Richard Villanueva. The claim is in the amount of $1,004.93, including $36.93 in disbursements for 8.80 hours of service billed at the rate of $110.00 per hour. We ask that this matter be introduced and referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Legislation.

We have reviewed this claim and advise that in our opinion, the time spent was reasonable. Legal representation was occasioned by the filing of a citizen's complaint against the officers with the Fire and Police Commission. The complaint was dismissed by the Commission.

As we have advised you under similar circumstances in the past, the Common Council has discretion to reject this claim or to pay it in whole or in part. Sec. 895.35, Stats., Bablitch and Bablitch v. Lincoln County, 82 Wis. 2d 574 (1978).

RE: Citizen Complaint of Mr. Travis L. Collins
Against POs Willie Huerta and Richard Villanueva
Complaint No.: 01-17
Date of Incident: November 12, 2000
Location of Incident: 2914 West Lincoln Avenue
EC No.: 1783

Dear Mr. Leonhardt:

The above-named police officers have retained us to represent them in connection with the above-referenced matter.

Consistent with its policy, the City Attorney's Office has refused to represent them, and as they were performing the duties of their office at the time of the events giving rise to the incident, the claim is hereby made on their behalf for the indicated legal fees. This incident involved a battery DV investigation.

The complainant was convicted of battery (habitual criminality) and knowingly violating a domestic abuse order (habitual criminality) on September 24, 2001, for conduct which occurred on July 18, 2001. Part of the habitual criminality conviction was based on the fact that Collins had been convicted on May 1, 2001 and May 3, 2001, of disorderly conduct and intimidation of a victim. The disorderly conduct conviction was for conduct which had occurred on November 12, 2000, in the incident which became the basis for the Fire and Police Commission (FPC) complaint against Officers Huerta and Villanueva.

I have included certified court records regarding these convictions because you have expressed interest in the past in knowing greater detail about the incident and the officers' conduct when the FPC complaint has been dismissed due to the unavailability of the complainant. The complaint includes details of the November 12, 2000 incident which led to the FPC complaint. Included in the criminal complaint are the following: Collins was extremely argumentative, refused to follow any orders of the officers on the scene [Huerta and Villanueva], and tensed up as the officers attempted to place him in the squad car. The complaint also notes that when Collins was conveyed to the Criminal Justice Facility, officers were required to stand by for over 3 hours while Collins was processed into the jail as a result of Collins' argumentative and violent conduct.

Charges will not be issued against the officers. Attached is a copy of the clearance report and an itemization of the time and services rendered.

Sincerely,

EGGERT & CERMELE, S.C.

If this is found to be the case, the maximum term of imprisonment for this crime may be increased to not more than 3 years, exclusive of other enhanced penalties also charged herein.

Complainant is a City of Milwaukee Police Officer and bases this complaint upon a review of the official City of Milwaukee Police reports which are kept in the ordinary and usual course of Milwaukee police business and which have been used in the past and have been found to be truthful and reliable. Said reports state the following: On July 18, 2001, at approximately 10:13 p.m., Milwaukee Police Officer Richard Villanueva and Sgt. John Sgrignuoli, were dispatched to 2914 W. Lincoln Ave., City and County of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin, for a battery complaint. Officers interviewed resident Lesia Davy, an adult citizen whom they believe to be truthful and reliable. Ms. Davy stated that at approximately 7:30 p.m. she had been arguing with her live-in boyfriend, the above-named defendant, and the defendant had been yelling at her and calling her "all kinds of bitches and whores." Ms. Davy stated that the defendant gets violent so she left the residence and starting walking on the side of the residence. Ms. Davy stated that the defendant then came out of the house and ran up to her yelling at her again calling her "bitches and whores." Ms. Davy stated that the defendant then grabbed her by the throat with his hand started shaking her, causing the back of head to bounce off the side of the house. Ms. Davy stated that she started to scream and cry in fear for her safety. Ms. Davy further stated this caused her pain to her head and was done without her consent.

Further, this complaint is based upon a review of the court file from Milwaukee County Court Case No. 00FA001256, which is a domestic abuse injunction and which names as petitioner Lesia Davy and which names as respondent Travis Collins. Review of said file indicates that on March 13, 2000, Milwaukee Family Court Commissioner Nancy Sturm issued said injunction to be effective until March 13, 2002, and which specifically orders that the respondent refrain from committing acts of domestic abuse against the petitioner and surrender all firearms owned by, or in the possession of, the respondent and that the respondent avoid the petitioner's residence and/or the residence temporarily occupied by the petitioner now and in the future, and that the respondent avoid contacting or causing any person other than a party's attorney to contact, the petitioner unless the petitioner consents in writing. Contact includes contact at work, school, private places, by phone or in writing. A review of said file further reveals that the defendant was served with said injunction entered on March 13, 2000, by Milwaukee County Sheriff's Deputy Fatrena Hale on March 14, 2000. Further review of said file indicates that said injunction was modified on May 1, 2000, and that the amended domestic abuse injunction only orders that the respondent refrain from committing of domestic abuse against the petitioner and that said amended domestic abuse injunction is effective until March 13, 2002. Further review of said file indicates that the defendant was personally served with a copy of said amended domestic abuse injunction by Milwaukee County Sheriff's Deputy Derek Rheaume on May 2, 2000.

Further, on May 1, 2001 and May 3, 2000, defendant Travis Collins was convicted in the County of Milwaukee in cases numbered 00CM010186 and 00CM00957 of the misdemeanor offenses of Disorderly Conduct and Intimidation of a victim in violation of 947.01 and 940.44(1), respectively, of the Wisconsin Statutes and that said convictions remain of record

STATE OF WISCONSIN CRIMINAL DIVISION MILWAUKEE COUNTY

STATE OF WISCONSIN Plaintiff

vs.

Collins, Travis Lebre

Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53215
(D.O.B.: November 25, 1965)

CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

Complaining Witness:
P.O. Thomas Lodde

DA Case Number: 00DV6999
Circuit Court Case Number:
[illegible]

THE ABOVE NAMED COMPLAINING WITNESS BEING DULY SWORN SAYS THAT THE ABOVE NAMED DEFENDANT(S) IN THE COUNTY OF MILWAUKEE, STATE OF WISCONSIN

COUNT 01: BATTERY, HABITUAL CRIMINALITY
On November 12, 2000, at 2914 W Lincoln Ave, City of Milwaukee, did cause bodily harm to Ruth Pearson by an act done with intent to cause bodily harm to Ruth Pearson and without the consent of Ruth Pearson contrary to Wisconsin Statutes Section 940.19(1) and 939.62.

COUNT 02: DISORDERLY CONDUCT, HABITUAL CRIMINALITY
On November 12, 2000, at 2914 W Lincoln Ave, City of Milwaukee, a private place, did engage in abusive, profane, and otherwise disorderly conduct under circumstances in which such conduct tended to cause or provoke a disturbance, contrary to Wisconsin Statutes Section 947.01 and 939.62.

AS TO COUNT 01:
Upon conviction of this charge, a Class A Misdemeanor, the maximum possible penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than 9 months or both.

AS TO COUNT 02:
Upon conviction of this charge, a Class B Misdemeanor, the maximum possible penalty is a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than 90 days or both.

HABITUAL CRIMINALITY (MAXIMUM TERM OF UNDERLYING CRIME 1 YEAR OR LESS)
Further as to Counts 01 and 02, that the defendant is a repeater as defined in Wisconsin Statutes Section 939.62, in that the defendant was convicted of a misdemeanor on three separate occasions during the five year period immediately preceding the commission of the crimes charged in these counts, which conviction(s) remain(s) of record and unreversed. If this is found to be the case, the maximum term of imprisonment for these crimes may be increased to not more than 3 years, exclusive of other enhanced penalties also charged herein, as to each count.

Complainant is a City of Milwaukee Police officer and bases this complaint upon information and belief of the following:

On November 12, 2000, Officer William Huerta was dispatched to 2914 West Lincoln Avenue. Upon his arrival he spoke with Ms. Ruth Pearson who stated that the defendant, Travis Collins, head butted her in the forehead causing a noticeable lump, redness, swelling and pain without her consent. Ms. Pearson stated that the defendant's actions were done while she attempted to intervene in a very hostile argument between the defendant and her sister, Lesia Davy. During the course of the defendant's conduct he stated to Ms. Pearson: "It's not your fucking business, prostitute bitch, get out of my house before I throw you out by your neck." All of the defendant's actions were observed by Ms. Davy's 12 year old daughter.

When the police arrived on scene, the defendant began to use extremely vulgar language in front of several children who were also present. The defendant stated to his son: "See what women do, they call the fucking police and they come, and the police take your fucking ass to jail because they believe the fucking bitches." The defendant remained extremely argumentative and refused to follow any orders of the officers on scene. In addition, the defendant tensed up as the officers attempted to place him in the squad car. It should be noted that when the defendant was conveyed to the Criminal Justice Facility, officers were required to stand by for over 3 hours while the defendant was processed into the jail as a result of the defendant's argumentative and violent conduct.

AS TO HABITUAL CRIMINALITY:
On November 12, 1998, defendant, Travis Collins was convicted in the County of Milwaukee in case number 98CM009093 of the Misdemeanor offense of Battery in violation of section 940.19(1) of the Wisconsin Statutes. In addition, on May 3, 2000, defendant was convicted in the County of Milwaukee in case number 00CM001957 of the Misdemeanor offenses of Disorderly Conduct With Use of a Dangerous Weapon and Intimidating Victim/Dissuading Reporting in violation of sections 947.01, 939.63 and 940.44(1), of the Wisconsin Statutes, respectively. Said convictions remain of record and unreversed and therefore defendant is a repeater pursuant to Wisconsin Statutes section 939.62, and is subject to a total sentence of not more than 3 years.
